

Linda Coady

Linda Coady is the Vice President of Sustainability for the Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (VANOC). She manages a project portfolio for VANOC that includes climate change, social inclusion, ethical purchasing and public reporting on VANOC's performance on all of its sustainability commitments.

Prior to joining VANOC, Linda worked for World Wildlife Fund Canada and Weyerhaeuser where she helped lead collaborative initiatives that reduced conflict over coastal forests and advanced more sustainable approaches to natural resource management.
