

BIO – Josephine Clark

Josephine Clark is a Park Planner with Metro Vancouver’s Regional Parks. As a professional biologist and GIS specialist, Josephine’s work focuses on environmental planning and resource management related initiatives within parks. Current projects include climate adaptation planning, natural asset management, and ecosystem mapping.